L. B. Ogilvie & Co.

has them all skinned this year in every respect, and I know.

YES, Santy knows, and so do we, for never before in the history of this store have we brought together so great a showing of beautiful and appropriate gifts. Very tiny sums will buy many really fine articles. The extraordinary care we've taken in our selection and buying is responsible for that advantage. But, although we will be glad to show you every gift in this store, this NEWS FROM CHRISTMASLAND will put you on the right track.

STORE PRIDE

Yes, we are proud of our store. We are proud of the kind of stocks we carry. Now, human nature is the same; when you buy a thing at our store you know it's good; it has got to be. It gives you that satisfied feeling. Now, when you offer a gift you want it to be good. You would not give a thing to a friend and be ashamed of the place you bought it. Well, stop and think; it costs no more to give an article with our reputation back of it. Your friend knows as well as you do where that article came from. The whole matter is this: Make your Xmas giving a doable pleasure; let it come from the store with a reputation—OGILVIE'S—and you both will have that satisfied feeling. Nuf said.

We have this year provided for everyone—mother, father, brother, sister, sweetheart and wife. Don't fail to see windows. Toys and dolls and in Fourth street windows. The assortments are now complete, but cannot last long.
